Welcome to Pastor David Prince who leads us in worship and brings us God's word at both of today's services. Next week Mr. John DeLeeuw will join us for the morning service.

Mary Visser will celebrate her 84th birthday this Tuesday, November 8. Happy birthday, Mary! May God bless you throughout the upcoming year.

After our morning service today, there will be a fundraiser taco bar dinner with a freewill offering to benefit the East Martin GEMS club. Sunday School is still meeting, but food will be ready at 11:00 for adults and those not attending Sunday School. Sunday School students are encouraged to join the dinner when their class is over. Please check out the GEMS silent auction in the basement. The girls have worked hard putting together some special items, and there are several donated items as well. Bidding is open now, but will end at noon. Winners with the highest bid can pick up/purchase their items at 12:01 with Amy Kalkman.

The Building Committee recommended to Council that the parsonage have some painting done. The total painting project comes to $12,500.00. A donation of $4,000 has already been received toward the project. Council is asking that the congregation please approve $8,500.00 for the painting of the parsonage. A Yes or No ballot is in the bulletin. Please fill it out and put it in the offering basket.

High School Youth Group starts next Sunday, November 13 at 7:30 PM at the Anchor. Come for food, fun and discussion about ideas for the year.

There will be a work/mission meeting on November 7 at Martin Reformed Church at 7 PM to see if anyone is interested in going down south. We would be helping to rebuild houses for hurricane /tornado victims. Bring your calendars so we can find out what is the best date for everyone. If you have any questions, contact Harvey Leep.
