A View from the Pew

Merry Christmas Who's My Jesus?

In a world that ignores, belittles, or outright rejects Jesus, it behooves us to consider who Jesus is, and more than that, intentionally ask ourselves, "What kind of Jesus do I want?" Even within the church there are multiple views of Jesus, and the Christian needs to come to terms with the answer to that query.

Do I desire the Prozac Jesus, who will make me feel better? Life is hard, and a "little something" might improve things. You know, I am feeling anxious.

*He will be only your Sovereign Savior King.

Or maybe a Vacation-Planner Jesus appeals, one who could take me places where life is more pleasurable. You know, like the beach, or a tropical paradise. Or, how about the middle of nowhere, out in the boondocks, with fresh-smelling pine woods and pristine lakes? A comfy rig and the perfect campsite will bring relaxation and family bonding. Fun in the sun. Yes, that's the life!

Jesus provides life in the Son!

Of course, there's always Suggestion Box Jesus, whose law is more advice than orders. If I really "don't feel like it," then He probably won't mind. After all, it's generally easier if I don't follow His every command. I like my comfort zone. It's familiar, with no "boat-rocking."

*He will be nothing less than the sovereign Savior King.

Then there is ^Accomplice Jesus, someone to rely on as long as He's doing my bidding, one on whom I can project my wants and wishes. If He does "something other," I can ^"keep Him in my vocabulary but discreetly click 'unsubscribe' and quietly unfriend Him."

*He will be to you what you need, your sovereign Savior King.

On the other hand, maybe I prefer District Attorney Jesus. He will "get" all those people who make life so difficult and unfair. They refuse, after all, to follow biblical principles. They are immoral, and mean. They cheat, bully, slander, deceive, steal, lie, even murder. Therefore, they should get what they deserve! And the sooner the better!

*He will be only your sovereign Savior King.

Perhaps today I long for the Match.com Jesus, who will give me someone to love. A person to move in with me and meet my needs.

*He will be to you what you need, your sovereign Savior King.

No, I don't need any of those, but a Neiman Marcus Jesus would be just the ticket: designer clothes, luxury items, and my golden dreams. If I could dress like the fashionable people, drive a newer, fancier, sportier vehicle. Oh, man, the latest in computer technology and games; a Rolex or Fitbit watch; a home remodel wouldn't hurt either.

*He will be nothing less than the sovereign Savior King.

Who is my Jesus? I look at all of this, and I think, I'm really not drawn to any of those. Actually, it's Christmas, and I like baby Jesus "wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger" (Luke 2:7)—isn't that adorable! Angels sing. Shepherds bow down. Later, wise men arrive with gifts. And He comes to bring peace on earth.

But wait!

This is Jesus.

I saw heaven standing open and there before me was a white horse, whose rider is called Faithful and True. With justice He judges and makes war. His eyes are like blazing fire, and on his head are many crowns. He has a name written on Him that no one knows but He Himself. He is dressed in a robe dipped in blood, and His Name is the Word of God. The armies of heaven [follow] Him, riding on white horses and dressed in fine linen, white and clean. Out of His mouth comes a sharp sword with which to strike down the nations. "He will rule them with an iron scepter." He treads the winepress of the fury of the wrath of God Almighty. On His robe and on His thigh He has this name written:

KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS

This is Jesus. This is Christmas.

Bible Study Opportunities at East Martin

Coffee Break

We will begin meeting again for the new session on January 8. We will be studying "The Women of the Bible Speak" by Shannon Bream. We will look into the lives of sixteen women of the Bible. Shannon takes us into their lives, but more specifically their hearts through their own words, emotions, and interactions. We will see how God used each one of them, and see through their lives, the value God has placed on each one of us.

We meet every Wednesday from 9:45 to 11:00. If anyone would like to join us, or has any questions, feel free to talk to Deb Smit or Denise Leep.

Ladies Evening Bible Study

Ladies Evening Bible Study will be studying the Sermon on the Mount by Jen Wilkin.

Here is an overview about the Study: In His sweeping depiction of kingdom citizenship, Jesus utters some of the most familiar passages in all of Scripture. Most of us have only encountered the Sermon on the Mount in fragments, considering its subdivisions as complete teachings in their own right—a study on blessedness; a reflection on the Lord's Prayer; a discussion of religious devotion, money, ambition, and relationships.

What if we navigated these three chapters in Matthew as they were originally heard? What if we read them as one cohesive, well-ordered message, intended to challenge us to think differently about what it means to be a follower of Jesus?

This 9-session study will give you the opportunity to do just that. Come and learn from Jesus, just as His disciples did. First released in 2014, this study is now updated with new teaching videos from Jen Wilkin.

We will be meeting at 6:30 pm the second and fourth Mondays starting January 13 and finishing May 12th. Come join us for fellowship and by doing so also keep yourself in God's Word. Talk to Sue Tiemeyer if you have any questions.

Men's Bible Study

The Men's Bible Study will continue studying the Sermon on the Mount through January before starting another study.

They meet on the first and third Wednesdays of each month starting on January 15.

If you have any questions, please contact Keith Smit.

Oh Come Let Us adore him

Praying that you have a Christmas filled with miracles and memorable moments you'll cherish forever.

To my family,
 I am in a Christmas card class at Life Care and I wish love, peace and keep knowing Jesus day in and day out. Never leave nor forsake Him, He doesn't leave us!

Nancy Minegar

During a time like this we realize how much our friends and relatives really mean to us ... Your expression of sympathy will always be remembered.

Thank you for the beautiful lantern and candle.

East Martin was the perfect place for a young student to start a ministry.

With love,
 Anita Schoonveld

May you have a blessed Christmas and a very prosperous New Year

Light of the World

...”I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never live in darkness. They will have the light that gives life.” John 8:12 ERV

In Him there was life, and that life was a
light for the people of the world.

The light shines in the darkness,
and the darkness has not defeated it.
John 1:4-5 ERV

May the light of Jesus shine brightly on you this Christmas and all throughout the year.

May you have a Merry Christmas and a blessed New Year.
