Reading of God's Law (A Call to Repentance and Compassion)

Leader: The LORD has redeemed us by His grace and calls us to live as a people shaped by repentance and compassion. He gives us His law not to condemn us, but to reveal our sin and teach us how to love.

People: Your word is a lamp to our feet and a light to our path.

Leader: What does God's law call us to do?

People: To turn from sin, to resist injustice, and to love our neighbor.

Leader: How shall we live as the redeemed?

People: With humble hearts, repenting of our sins, and walking in grateful obedience.

Confession of Sin (Unison)

Merciful God,

You call us to love as You have loved us,
yet we confess that we often fail.

We have sought our own good instead of the good of others,
and progress without compassion.

Forgive us for the sake of Jesus Christ.

Renew our hearts by Your Spirit,
that we may walk in repentance
and serve one another in love.

Amen.

Assurance of Pardon:

Leader: Hear the good news of the gospel:

"If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

In Jesus Christ, our sins are forgiven,
our hearts are renewed,
and we are called to live as a redeemed and compassionate people.

People: Thanks be to God.

Take note! As we welcome new people into our church family we are shifting mailboxes around to make room. Please be aware as you collect your church mail.

If you feel led to join contact Keith Smit, he'll make sure you have a book. The group meets every 1st and 3rd Wednesday of the month at 7:00 pm in church.

Thank you to those who have already provided a meal for the youth group. There is a signup sheet if you would like to provide a, upcoming meal.

Sermon Series: The Book of Nehemiah: Rebuilding, Reforming, and Restoring

Sermon Recap: Nehemiah 4 teaches that whenever God’s work moves forward, opposition will surely follow—not as proof of failure, but as evidence that God is at work; through mockery, threats, fear, and fatigue, the enemy seeks to discourage both new and mature believers, yet Nehemiah shows that God’s people must respond with prayer, vigilance, and perseverance, building faithfully while staying watchful, trusting that “our God will fight for us,” remaining united as a community, grounded in God’s Word, gathered regularly for renewal, and confident that in Christ the ultimate Builder and Defender, no opposition can stop what God has purposed to complete.

Sermon Title: Compassion and Repentance Go Hand in Hand

Sermon Text: Nehemiah 5

Sermon Outline:

1. When the Redeemed Forget their Identity, Progress Becomes Self-Serving (5:1–11)

2. When Repentance is Practiced, God’s People is Served and God’s Favor is Received

Sermon Series: The Heidelberg Catechism

Sermon Recap: Lord’s Day 35 teaches that because God is Spirit—eternal, immortal, and invisible—He forbids His people from making images of Him and calls them instead to worship Him only as He has revealed Himself in His Word, not according to human imagination; the Second Commandment protects both God’s glory and our hearts by guarding us from reducing, controlling, or reshaping God through physical or mental images, while directing us to true knowledge of Him through preaching, Scripture, and ultimately Jesus Christ, the incarnate Son, in whom the invisible God has graciously made Himself known.

Sermon Title: Your Mouth is the Window of Your Heart (3rd Commandment)

Sermon Text: James 3:1–12

Sermon Outline:

1. The Name of God is Holy

2. The Tongue on Man Exposes His Own Heart

3. The Gospel-Shaped Tongue Uses the Name of God for Gain
